

"Do this in remembrance of Me" - Cor. 11: 24

Sunday 10th September

Everyone is welcome in Orchardhill.

Before our service begins at 10.30am, you're free to have a tea or coffee and browse through what's happening. Feel free to sit wherever you wish.

Join us, too, for drinks and chat after the service underneath the arches on the right.

There is a retiring collection today for Help the Aged Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts, thou light of life, Thou fount of grace;

from the best bliss that earth imparts
we turn unfilled to seek Thy face.

Thy truth unchanged has ever stood;
Thou savest those that on Thee call;
to them that seek Thee Thou art good,
to them that find Thee, all in all.

We taste Thee, O Thou living bread, and long to feast upon Thee still;
we drink of Thee, the fountain-head,
and thirst our souls from Thee to fill.

Our restless spirits yearn for Thee,
where'er our changeful lot is cast, glad when Thy gracious smile we see, blest when our faith can hold Thee fast.

O Jesus, ever with us stay;
make all our moments calm and bright;
chase the dark night of sin away;
shed o'er the world Thy holy light.

*I am the church!
You are the church!
We are the church together!
All who follow Jesus,
all around the world,
yes, we're the church together.*

The church is not a building,
the church is not a steeple.
The church is not a resting place,
the church is a people!

We're many kinds of people with many kinds of faces:
all colours and all ages too,
from all kinds and places.

We gather here, in Jesus' name,
His love is burning in our hearts like living flame;
for through the loving Son,
the Father makes us one;
come, take the bread, come drink the wine,
come, share the Lord.

No one is a stranger here,
everyone belongs;
finding our forgiveness here,
we in turn forgive all wrongs.

He joins us here, He breaks the bread, the Lord who pours the cup is risen from the dead;

And when the people gather,
there's singing and there's praying;
there's laughing and
there's crying sometimes,
all of it saying:

At Pentecost some people received the Holy Spirit and told the Good News
through the world
to all who would hear it.

I count if I am ninety,
or nice, or just a baby; There's one thing I am sure about and I don't mean maybe:

the one we love the most
is now our gracious host;
come, take the bread, come, drink the wine,
come share the Lord.

We are now a family,
of which the Lord is head;
though unseen He meets us here in the breaking of the bread.

We'll gather soon where angels sing;
we'll see the glory of our Lord and coming King;
now we anticipate
the feast for which we wait;
come, take the bread, come, drink the wine,
come share the Lord.

All praise and thanks to God who reigns in highest heaven, the Father and the Son
and Spirit, now be given:
the one, eternal God,
whom earth and heaven adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because He's given Jesus Christ, His Son.
Give thanks with a grateful heart,
give thanks to the Holy One,
give thanks because He's given Jesus Christ, His Son.

Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast
won;
angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away, kept the folded grave-clothes where Thy body lay.

*Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son, endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast
won.*

And now let the weak say 'I am strong',
let the poor say 'I am rich',
because of what the Lord has done for us.
And now let the weak say 'I am strong',
let the poor say 'I am rich',
because of what the Lord has done for us.

Henry Smith (b.1952) Ccli licence 20979

Lo! Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb; lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom.
Let the church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
for her Lord now liveth; death hast lost its sting.

No more we doubt Thee, glorious Prince of Life;
life is naught without Thee: aid us in our strife.
Make us more than conquerors through
Thy deathless love;
Bring us safe through Jordan to Thy home above.

Scripture Luke 10:36-42

Jesus said, 'Which of these three do you think was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?'
The expert in the law replied, 'The one who had mercy on him.'
Jesus told him, 'Go and do likewise.'
As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him. She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said. But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, 'Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!' 'Martha, Martha,' the Lord answered, 'you are worried and upset about many things, but few things are needed – or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.'
